Access and Inclusion Action Plan 2024-27
Evaluation Steering Group

We are seeking community members to join an Evaluation Steering Group that will help assess the effectiveness of the Access and Inclusion Action Plan 2024-2027.

The Steering Group will:

- Meet approximately once per month between January and June 2027 (six meetings in total)
- Review evidence and outcomes against the evaluation framework
- Provide insights and recommendations based on lived experience and community perspectives
- Work collaboratively with Council representatives

The Steering Group is a voluntary role and will include both community members and Council representatives. You do not need to have experience in evaluation to participate in the group.

PLEASE NOTE: If you need additional space for your responses, please include them on a separate page and submit alongside your survey.

Please return completed Expression of Interest (EOI) Form to: Philip Street Communities and Families Precinct or email to communities@gladstone.qld.gov.au. Submissions close 4 December 2027.
